Re: MAEOP Annual Fall Conference

Dear Shef:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you from the bottom of my heart for providing such a dynamic and useful workshop on October 19. Your professional skills were unsurpassed! My committee has been receiving continuous praise for having had the insight to invite you to speak to office professionals from Maryland. From your topic of How to Keep Your Head On While Working Your Butt Off, to your kind and caring personal manner, our attendees were most grateful for the information they were able to take back and incorporate in their own life situations. In these fast-paced and taxing times, it is not often that talented folks like yourself make the decision to “give back” for the betterment of the cause. Please know that the members and I are very appreciative of your efforts.

As the president of MAEOP, I commend you on your dedication to your profession. Many others will aspire to new heights because of the passion and commitment you have displayed as being a presenter this year. Thank you again for a job well done.

Sincerely yours,

Debra Blimline, CEOE
President

P.S. I trust your trip home was pleasant and without incident. Feel free to contact me for a positive and glowing reference if you ever require it. Thanks again.
